The Vermont Phanix.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Quick lunch at Jacobs's, 47 Main St. Gates & Alger, dressmakers, 61 Main

"Eclat" Hammocks-the finest. Sold by

New Framed Pictures in great variety at Clapp & Jones's.

Fill up your post card album with beautiful North American scenery from Clapp & Jones's large assortment.

Twentieth Century health bread, cakes, ples, cookles, doughnuts, etc. Wedding cake a specialty. All goods home made. J. E. Jacobs, 47 Main St.

I am prepared to do shampooing, facial massage and manicuring. Appointments made at your residence or No. 9 Canal street. Phone 32-5. MRS. E. WALES.

Brattleboro Private School, 83 Main St. Shorthand and teachers' courses a specialty. Typewriters to rent.

Miss Susan Holton will tell stories to children in the Congregational chapel Friday, June 29, at 3.30 p. m. Admission

BRATTLEBORO.

The summer kindergarten will close today. The summer kindergarten will open Monday, July 9. The next concert by the First Regiment band will be given on the common Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ladies of the Baptist church will serve cake and lee cream on the lawn at the home of Mrs. A. G. Cobb, Linden street, next Wednesday evening.

The M. Steinert & Sons Co. of Boston

The closing exercises of St. Michael's school will be held in St. Michael's hall Thursday, June 28. The names of the graduates are John W. Blake, Frederick J. Adams, Mary C. Doyle, Mary M. Ryan, Marion C. Denning, Mary C. Aher, Ellen M. Austin and Mary E. Austin. M. Austin and Mary E. Austin.

Col. John Hunt has been notified that original pensions have been granted this week to George Cain of Brattleboro, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and to Lizzie McCoy of Millers Falls, Mass., and the pensions of Charles D. Bly and was held at the Brooks House Wednesday with an attendance of 17. Miss Anna Cutier, associate professor of philosophy at Smith was the guest of honor. A of Rutiand; Miss Read, Miss Judd, Miss Arms and Miss Shipman of Bellows Falls; Miss Bugbee of Hartford, Miss Howe of Thetford, Miss Warren of Peoria, III., Mrs. Fitts, Mrs. Rice, Miss Perkins, Miss Wellman, Miss Esterbrook and Miss Cox

The marriage of Miss Susie Ermina Jones to Harry Townshend Horsman of South Framingham, Mass., took place a South Framingham, Mass., took place at 1 o'clock Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hubbard, at 9 Canai street. A double ring service was used and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank L. Masseck, pastor of the Universalist church, in the presence of about 25 relatives and inti-mate friends. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Margaret Barber preceding the marriage cer-emony. The bride wore a gray traveling suit and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Blanche Kenrited a bouquet are maid was Miss Blanche Nomed and was Miss Blanche Nomed and was Miss Blanche Nomed and are stated as the see work and a not write and and are stated as the see work and and in the dining room where flat lunch was served were handed and white creep paper. After a ding trip Mr. and Mrs. Horsman will be parties concerned in New Court and white creep paper. After a ding trip Mr. and Mrs. Horsman will be parties concerned in New Court and white creep paper. After a ding trip Mr. and Mrs. Horsman will be parties concerned in New Court and white creep paper. After a ding trip Mr. and Mrs. Horsman will be parties concerned in New Court and white concerned in New Court and William Remail of Salisbury. New Brimswick. Mrs. Horsman is a son of Mrs. William Remail of Salisbury. New Brimswick. Mrs. Horsman came to Brattleboro to live about a year ago and until within a short time has been an operator in the New England teleparator in the Salisbury. The New England teleparator in the Salisbury of the New England teleparator in the New

The closing exercises of the 9th grade will be held in the high school room this

The young people of Hinsdale will have a waitzing party in Hinsdale next Thursday evening. Leitsinger and Dugan will furnish music. All are invited.

The stone wall on the east side of the hill leading from the Eillot street iron bridge to Eirge street is being relaid by Road Commissioner P. S. Eannes. It had become displaced by the continued action

Amos V. May and Annie E. Parson were married at 2.30 o'clock yesterday b Rev. A. H. Webb, paster of the Methodis church. Mr. May is a well known real estate agent. They will be at home at 24 Western avenue after Aug. 1.

Capt. E. W. Gibson would like to entist Capt. E. W. Gibson would like to enlist a few good men in Company I before July 1. Those not having had any military training are preferred. It is rumored that the company may spend a week at Mi. Gretna, Pa., instead of going to the state camp ground for the annual muster.

The delegates who attended the district meeting at Montpoller Tuesday were J. L. Martin, C. C. Pitts, E. C. Crosby, E. W. Gibson, H. E. Taylor, W. H. Vinton, E. W. Gibson, H. E. Taylor, W. H. Vinton, H. P. Wellman, H. G. Barber, H. F. Brooks, W. E. Hubbard, H. C. Blee. The delegates in the state convention Wednesday were George W. Pierce, Major C. Houghton, C. R. Crosby, E. W. Gibson, Dr. H. D. Holton, H. G. Barber, J. L. Martin, E. E. Perry, G. E. Gliman, W. E. Hubbard, W. F. Root. All of the towns in the county were represented in both con-ventions except Athens. ventions except Athens.

F. B. Holman will begin running an express and passenger team between Pine Grove Springs. Spofford lake, and Brattleborz July 2. He has bought a new outfit, including a canopy top express wagon. Headquarters will be at White's livery stable and order books will be at livery stable and order books will be at Greene's pharmacy and at the Brattleboro News company's store. The team will leave Pine Grove Springs at 7.30 o'clock arriving in Brattleboro at 11 o'clock. Re-turning, the team will leave Brattleboro at o'clock, arriving at Pine Grove Springs

The M. Steinert & Sons Co. of Boston have several examples of planola planos on exhibition at the Brooks House, to which attention is called through their advertisement in this paper.

The closing exercises of St. Michael's hall on the Boston & Albany railroad. The woman stood on the platform of the car, woman stood on the platform of the car, holding her baby in her arms. The plat-form was enclosed and the steps were covered with trap doors, so that every-thing appeared to be safe. A sudden jolt caused the trap door over one set of steps to open, leaving the weman stand-ing on the very edge of the top stair, and as her back was turned she was unconweek to Goorge Cain of Brattleboro, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and to Lizzie McCoy of Millers Falls, Mass. and the pensions of Charles D. Bly and Andrew J. Kenney of Brattleboro will be increased.

The Centre Congregational Sunday school will have a basket picnic in Central park next Tuesday. A round-trip rate of 25 cents has been secured, and tickets may be obtained at the railroad station Tuesday morning. The train will leave to Mr. Tasker comprehended the situation and made a quick dash for the trap door, which he closed. A pallor spread over the woman's face when she realized what might have happened and she expressed deep gratitude to Mr. Tasker.

Island. The Vermonters are Lucien F. Kimball and B. B. Taylor. The class is be divided into thirds, according to ranking. The first third, in which Kimball and Taylor are included, will remain at the naval academy during the summer, take a special course and exaduate in the summer. cutler, associate professor of philosophy at Smith was the guest of honor. A luncheon of six courses was served at 1 o'clock, followed by a business meeting. Miss Cutler spoke of the work of the society, its object being to raise money to make loans or gifts to students of Smith college. Those present were Mrs. Dana, Miss Tuttle and Miss Gary of Rutiand; Miss Read, Miss Judd, Miss Arms and Miss Shipman of Bellows Falls; Bratichoro, and was appropriated to the a son of Mr. and Frank W. Kimball of Brattleboro, and was appointed to the naval academy by Congressman Haskins three years ago, just before he completed his third year in the high school.

passed his entrance examinations scessfully and has maintained has cholarship throughout his course. auc-

Extension of Time for Street Railroad Transfer.

The stockholders of the Brattlebore Street Railroad company met Monday eve ning and appointed George C. Averill agent to transfer the railroad property to the New York syndicate which put up a forfeit for it some time ago. The property was not transferred this week as originally planned, the stockholders generally having accented a proposition made erally having accepted a proposition made to them in a circular letter issued Monday The substance of the letter was as fol-Brattleboro Sunshine society, branch 1, will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hall, Chapin street, Friday afternoon, June, at I o'clock.

Members of Dennis Rebekah lodge, No are urged to be present at the meeting fuesday evening, as business of impor-ance will be transacted.

The license commissioners of Guilford will hold a hearing at 2 o'clock tomorrow on the application of O. H. Ellis for a license of the first class to sell liquor in Broad Brook House.

W. D. Smith, trustee, has advertised the property of the Brattleboro Manufacturing company, in bankrupicy, for sale by auction at 19 o'clock next Wednesday at the factory on Arch street. A. W. J. Wilkins will be the auctioneer.

The newly elected officers of Hingham chapter, Order of Eastern Star, conducted their first initiation Tuesday evening, after which they were complimented for their work by Past Grand Worthy Marron Mrs. Hattle E. Taylor, This was the last meeting of the season.

News has been received of the death in San Francisco of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Timson, widow of Timothy Timson and sister of the late T. J. B. Codworth. Mrs. Timson was born in Patney March 7, 1834, but had lived in San Francisco many years. She had been an invalid the past ten years.

The commissioners appointed to divide the island opposite Brattlebaro, owned by Mrs. F. C. Gale and F. D. Fisk, have reported to the probate court in Keens. The court entered a decree Wednesday. To Mrs. Gale is given the express office, the house which she occupies and the ball ground. To Fisk is given the two other houses, the barns, the bowling alley and land north and east of the ball Right Rev. J. S. Michaud of Burlington, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese, ad-ministered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of 77 Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. About 70 members of the class were children. They took their first communion at the 9 o'clock mass. Two years had elapsed since the previous confirmation service. The following are the names of the sponsors for those who were confirmed: Florence Ferriter, John Fen-ton, John Eckels, James Riley, Patrick Aber, John Fitzgerald, Sadle Young, Ritu Eckels, Mary Fenton, Katis Carey, Ellen Fenton, Annie McGrath.

Lake Water company's pipe line, but the dogs were not seen. In addition to the six dead sheep one was found badly hitsix dead sheep one was found badly bit-ten. The selectmen have offered a re-ward of $19 for the identification of the dogs. On the previous Saturday, as re-ported last week, three sheep in the same flock were killed, another was bitten and one could not be found. The missing sheep afterwards was found dead. The net result of the two days' work of the dogs was 19 sheep killed and two bitten.

emy, Miss Maud Brown, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Fred C. Brown, and Warrer Miner, driver. Miss Mackenzie and Miss Brown had been entertained by Mrs. Stockwell at her cottage at the lake and were returning home when the acciden happened. In going down a steep hill near Morris Chamberlain's the breeching of the harness broke, letting the carriage upon the horse, which started to run. All were thrown out except Mrs. Stock-well, and she climbed over the sent and jumped. Soon afterward the horse cleared itself from the carriage. The four persons took an inventory of themselves and found that all were more or less hurt. Mrs. Stockwell had a deep cut acress one leg just above the knee. She was hurt more seriously than any of the others. Miss Brown received a wound seven inches long on her forehead and Miss Mackenzie re-ceived a cut on one arm. The driver was bruised about one arm and shoulder.

Julia Margaret Austin, 14, second daug-er of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Austin fer of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Austin. dled Monday morning at her home on Grove street after an attack of appendi-cities followed by peritonitis. She went home from school ill on June 7. Councils of physicians were held and an effort wa made to cure the disease without an op-eration, but on Friday night last the appendix perforated, on Saturday peri-tonitis developed, and she died about 1.15 o'clock Monday merning. She was born

Julia Margaret Austin.

Thirty-five sacks of mail for foreign ports were sent out from the Brattleboro post office resterday.

A. V. May's agency has sold to Frank Hoyt of Guelph, Ontarlo, the Sam Adams farm on the Putney read, owned by Holden & Martin.

The annual meeting of the society of scamstresses, needlewomen and shop girls will be held in Festival hall next Thursday evening at 7.20 o'clock. The annual Masonic directory for 1904-97 has been issued. It contains a list of the officers and members of the several Masonic organizations, dates of regular and annual meetings, etc. The meeting on the common next Sunday at 5 o'clock will be in charge of E. W. Gibson. Rev. E. T. Mathison will preach the sermon. In case of rain the service will be held in the First Baptist

Rev. H. R. Miles will preach particularly to parents next Sunday morning. Parents' Sunday follows Children's Sunday, but on account of the storm the sermon prepared for last Sunday was postponed Jelly company's property contained in the jelly mill on Flat street began at 10 o'clock Saturday and continued through the afternoon. A. W. J. Wilkins was also the afternoon. A. W. J. Wilkins was sur-tioneer. The total receipts were nearly

Mrs. Angelica B. Shea and Miss Mary R. Shea will entertain the Vermont so-ciety of United States Daughters of 1812 at their home, 4 Oak street, Wednesday evening, June 27, at 8 o'clock. The an-nual business meeting will be held at 7 o'clock, at the same place.

The Central Vermont Railway company will sell round trip tickets to the Yale-Harvard boat race at New London next Thursday. The train will leave Brattle-boro at 7.25 and will leave New London at 5.29. The rate from Brattleboro, in-cluding exchange order for the observation train, will be $3.50.

Twenty young men, junior members of the Y. M. C. A. and Knights of King Arthur, accompanied by Secretary Charles
F. W. Cunningham and Rev. Frank L.
Masseck, tramped to Indian pond Saturday forenoon. Dinner was cooked over a big benfire and after a good plunge in the pond the party returned home, arriving at the association rooms at 5.30 o'clock.

Six more sheep were found dead on W. H. Winslow's farm in West Brattle-boro Saturday. The barking of dogs was heard by men working on the Sunset two eighth grade teachers, Miss Elizabeth E. Lewis and Miss Susan E. Driver, who is the E. Lewis and Miss Susan E. Driver, who is the E. Lewis and Miss Imogen S. Farnum. have resigned. Miss Imogen S. Farnum, busher of mathematics in the high school, has resigned to become principal of a private school at Palm Beach, Fla. and her place will be taken by Miss Mary D. Henshaw of Greenfield, formerly a Brat-tleboro high school teacher. With the exception of these three changes the teaching force will be the same as for the past year, but there will be changes in the location of some of the teachers in the Liewellyn A. Trussell and Maria S. Johnson, both of Wardsboro, were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's cousin, Emery J. Eddy, at 3 Canal street. Rev. A. H. Webb, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The bridal couple entered the parlor unattended as the wedding march was played by Miss.

The village bailiffs issued Saturday sight a call for a special village meeting text Friday night. Following is the text of the call: "The voters of the village of Brattleboro are hereby warned to meet in Festival hall in said village on the 23th day of June. A. D. 1906. at 8 o'clock in the evening to set on the following business: I. To decide as to the kind, amount, denominations and numbers of the bonds the village will issue under the vote taken Jan. 10, 1906, and when and where payable, the rate of interest and when payable, and whether they shall be registered or have interest coupons attached; and whether the village will authorize and ratify the negotiation and sale of said bonds by the water board." It is stated by members of the board that several bond houses have offered to take the bonds, if legal, but that, as previously stated the conditions of the market. bonds, if legal, but that, as previously stated, the conditions of the market make it advisable to submit the matter to the voters of the village. It is also stated by members of the board that in all probability active operations in putting in an independent water system will be begun the present summer

Funeral of Mrs. Wells.

The funeral of Mrs. John C. Wells, who week, was held at the Unitarian church Saturday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Osgood, who officiated, spoke of Mrz. Weil's long residence in Brattleboro, of her connection with one of the most prominent families of the town—a family which here the bonored name of the first settled minister in Brattleboro—of her connection with the Unitarian church and devotion to all its interests, of her life of earnest usefulness, of her helpful and sympathetic interest in all her friends and in the larger affects of the community are in arger affairs of the community-an in terest maintained to the very end of her long and good life. Mr. Miller sang two selections. The burial was in the family lot on the brow of the hill in Prospect Hill complex when in previous week house. band and her daughters, Mary and Sarah, and in the early spring of this year of her elder son, John Chester Wells. Bosides Mrs. Wells's only remaining son and child, Eben F. Wells, who came from St. Paul with the body of his mother, there came to attend the funeral Charles Hopkins Clark and Mrs. Clark and their daughter, Miss Mary Clark, of Hartford, Conn.; Miss Mary E. Wells and Fred Colt of New York and James Jones of Chicago. The pall bearers were C. H. Pratt, H. R. Lawrence, C. W. Dunham and E. Burr Smith BRATTLEBORO PERSONAL

George Hall of Albany is in town. Olive Blatherwick went Thursday to Neille Cary of Bellows Falls is visiting at Patrick Brosnahan's. Fred Gilson of St. Johnsbury called on Brattleboro friends Friday. Mrs. Charles Brooks returned Friday after a week's visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Badette have moved from Forest street to No. 3 Estabrook street. Leon Hall has bought and taken pos-Miss Grace Norcross was the guest of Mrs. George R. Fisher in Greenfield last

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Thompson have gone o Shelter Island Heights to remain until Miss Helen Childs of Manchester, N. H., came yesterday to visit Miss Rose

Mrs. C. F. W. Cunningham will spend the next two weeks in Springfield, Mass., with her mother.

Harry Wales was in Greenfield Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gould.

Mrs. R. H. Biddell of East Somerville, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor at the Brooks House. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Davis and daughter. Virginia, went yesterday to Mont-peller to visit Mr. Davis's parents.

Miss Dorothy Todd of Springfield, Mass., who was the guest of Mrs. J. T. Denning a week, left Wednesday for a visit in Hanover and St. Johnsbury. Evan Goodale was at home the first of the week from Boston, where he has charge of the Eastern Drug company's chemical laboratory. George Danyew has moved into the main part of his house on Elliot street and John Perry has moved from the Tur-ner house on Elliot street to the ell part warsted by Mr. Danyew.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Counter will move Monday from 19 Canal street to the house they bought recently in North Hinsdale.

Mrs. Lucius will take the house vacated by the Counters and will take boarders. William Cory will return next week to his former position as chef in Hall's res-taurant, where he was employed two or three years. He has been working in a three years. He has been working in a restaurant in Boston the past few months.

Arthur Jackson, who has been mail clerk between Brattleboro and South Londonderry the past two years, left Tuesday to take his new position on the run between White Hiver Junction and Concord. His place will be filled by G. M. Ainsworth of Montpeller.

Death of G. B. Kirwan.

Gerald B. Kirwan, 70, died at the town farm yesterday morning after a year's illremaind nation of the part of ness with a disease of the liver. He was born in Boston, Mch. 7, 1836, and was a son of Martin and Susan (Burke) Kirwan. He went to Ireland when a young man and graduated from Dublin university. His father was a man of wealth and prominence, but reverses came to him

The little folk of North Main and North streets will hold a fair and sale on Mrs. N. I. Hawley's lawn tomorrow af-Mrs. N. I. Hawley's lawn tomorrow ar-ternoon from 3 o'clock to 7.20. The boys and girls of this neighborhood have taken great interest in making articles and in other preparations for this sale. taken great interest in making articles and in other preparations for this sale, the proceeds of which will be for the help of the "Sea Breeze" hospital for invalid children—one of the many activities of Jacob Rils for the help of the poor. Should the weather be rainy tomorrow the sale will be postponed to Monday afternoon. Monday afternoon.

The annual rifle competition at Nor university for the trophies offered Capt. Fred T. Austin of the United States Artillery corps, was held Monday afternoon. Lieut. Clarence A. Tenney of Brattleboro, who won the gold medal last year, defended it, making a score of 116, entitling him to a duplicate medal as his permanent property. This is the first time in the history of prize shooting at the university that permanent possession of the medal has been won. Two years ago it was won by Hugh J. Betterley. A family gathering of the children of the late Liberty Howe, and their families, was held at the home of Mrs. Orrel Brown on Brook street Sunday. Three Brown on Brook street Sunday. Three generations were represented. A bountful dinner was served to 17. Among those present were four brothers and three sisters. The party consisted of Hamilton Howe of Chesterfield, N. H., Mrs. A. A. Tilton of South Deerfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Howe of Hinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Howe of New York city, E. E. Howe of South Deerfield, Mrs. Persis Eames and daughters and Mrs. Orrel Brown and daughter of Brattleboro, Mrs. Addie Rutter of St. Paul, Minn. and Mr. Addie Rutter of St. Paul, Minn. and Mr. Addie Rutter of St. Paul, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Howe and two children of Chicago.

The summer schedule of trains will go into effect Sunday night. There are few changes. The "midnight" trains, running between New York and the White mountains and Quebec, will be put on, the southbound train going at 1.27 and the northbound train going at 2.33. The "owi" train south will leave at 5.28 a. m. The afternoon White mountain train south will go at 1.48 instead of 2.23. A local between Windsor and Springfield will are will go at 1.48 instead of 2.23. A local between Windsor and Springfield will arrive at 2.97 and leave at 3 o'clock. The Sunday train south at 8.29 will run as usual. Going north, a train will be made up at Brattleboro, leaving for Windsor at 5.40 a. m. The night train from New London will arrive at 10 o'clock. The Sunday paper train will arrive at 2.02 instead of 8.50. The West River train leaving South Londonderry at 7 o'clock will leave one hour later. Otherwise the present schedule will remain unchanged.

IF YOU

the best value your money ever bought, invest in one of our Blue Serge, Fancy Worsted, Cassimere, Homespun or Black Thibet Suits. Others as low as $5, as high as $22

> Remember we guarantee everything we sell as to style, quality, fit and price, and we agree to make good anything that proves other-

Straw Hats 25c, 50c, 75c

$1.00 and up

E. J. FENTON & CO.

ALWAYS RELIABLE.

Custom Tailoring.

Our line of woolens for Spring and Summer comprises all the latest shades and designs from foreign and domestic manufacturers. We invite your early inspection; we have 500 different styles to select from. Don't make the mistake of waiting too long; give us one, two, or even three months, or one week, and we will get your suit ready for you, in first-class shape, when you need it. We also do repairing of all kinds.

LAFLECHE BROS..

41 Main St.

Drug Business For Sale.

I offer for sale my stock of Drugs, Drug Sundries, Patent Medicines, Jewelry, Silverware, Fancy Goods, Soda Fountain and Drug Store fixtures, together with the good will of these branches business which I have successfully carried on for 18 years past.

(My grocery and hardware business are no for sale.) No other drug store here. A grand chance for the right man. CHAS. H. PARMELEE.

Corner Drug Store. Wilmington, Vt. Help Wanted

We want a number of first-class Varnishers, Water Rubbers, Rotten Stoners, Hand Polishers, and all-round Finishers, also first-class Woodwork Machine Hands and Cabinet Makers.

We have the largest plano factory in the world. All buildings are new, fireproof, light and airy. Pleasant surroundngs and congenial fellow workmen. Pleasant homes can be secured near the factory on easy payment plan.

Write at once stating experience. Foster-Armstrong Piano Co., Rochester, N. Y. EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT.

Executor's Sale of Real Estate. Will be sold at Public Auction on the prem-iscs on Vine St., Brattleboro, on the 30th Day of June, at 2 P. M.

The homestead place of Jane E. Atwater, The premises consist of about 258 feet of land ronting on Vine Street and about 168 feet deep. A comfortable story-and-a-haif dwelling house with basement and barn on the same. The land is first-class for cultivation and good for building purposes. A very desirable place F. D. E. STOWE, Executor.

A. W. J. WILKINS. AUCTIONEER.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Crackers!

We make a specialty of "Carr Crackers" and you will always find them fresh.

Cookies in packages and in bulk.

LARGE ASSORTMENT. FRESH STOCK. LOW PRICES

GRANGE STORE. Elliot St.

H. E. BOND & CO.

Funeral Directors and Furnishers. 17 Main Street, Brattleboro, Vt.

Telephone-Office 264. Residence 157-5.

A Native of Wilmington A Native of Wilmington.

Deacon Rufus Smith, 92, who died at the home of Mrs. H. O. Smith in Greenfield, Mass., Tuesday, came to that transeveral years ago after sustaining a fracture of the hip at Shelburne Falls. He never recovered from this injury, but was able to get about the house with difficulty until five months ago, when he was stricken with apoplexy. Mr. Smith was born in Wilmington, Mar. 29, 1814. He received his education in the Wilmington district school and at Franklin academy at Shelburne Falls. During his surv ton district school and at Franklin academy at Shelburne Falls. During his suriy years of manhood he married Susan E Ware of Wilmington. For over 55 years he was employed by the Lamson & Goodnow company, part of the time acting as assistant superintendent under his son. Hiram O. Smith, who superintended the Goodnow works for many years. He was active until 1898, when he retired and went to Turners Falls to make his hone with his son. Hiram, who had taken a position as superintendent of the Russell cutlery. The burial was in Arms centerery in Shelburne Falls.